PACIFIC NORTHWEST ANTIQUE AIRCRAFT AIR TOUR

June 7, 2015,

The Pacific Northwest Air Tour is coming to Lewiston on Thursday, July 16th. Around thirty antique and classic airplanes will be arriving during the afternoon on Thursday and will be departing during the day on Friday.

The Puget Sound Antique Airplane Club is organizing the air tour. The objective of the Air Tour is to recreate the historic barn storming tours of the 1930's that brought aviation appreciation to communities across the nation. A sampling of planes include: Pre-war Howards, and Interstates; Stearman and Fairchild military trainers; and numerous post war Aeronca, Beechcraft, Bellanca, Cessnas, Piper and Taylorcraft aircraft.

The public is invited to come out and view these remarkable planes and meet the pilots during their stay at the Lewiston-Nez Perce County Airport.

The tour will begin in Richland, Wa. and make stops in St Maries, Id., Bonners Ferry Id., Crystal Lakes, Mt., Kalispell, Mt. and Kamiah, Id. prior to arriving in Lewiston.
